STETSON IS WELL PREPARED

LOOKS LIKE DEFEAT FOR ROLLINS.

Team In Great Form.

Coach Hollander's boys are expected to run up another big score tomorrow when they again grapple with the Rollins eleven. The Green and White squad is now in the best form it has shown since the opening of the season, and every one who has watched it work looks confidently to an even more decisive victory on the hostile gridiron than was gained two weeks ago on the home grounds. The team is at present practically free from serious injuries, and every practice game has been characterized by fast, hard, scrimmages. Not only are a number of individual stars showing smashing form, but the team work is good, and the squad works like a machine. At no time has the outlook been more hopeful for the Stetson eleven.

That the Rollins gridiron outfit has not greatly improved since their disastrous game on the Stetson ball lot is shown by the heavy defeat suffered at the cleats of the Southern College boys last Saturday. In a game of ten minute quarters the warriors of the Blue and White piled up the same score run up by Stetson against Rollins, the ultimate tally being 34 to 0. Southern's eleven totally demoralized the Rollins defense, gaining almost at will by line bucks or open field work. Rollins appeared especially helpless in the breaking up of forward passes. If this remains the case tomorrow Dutch Hollander's shifty assortment of trick pass formations should be highly instrumental in the accumulation of another lop-sided score.

Musselwhite, the star halfback for the Rollins aggregation, is the individual star who will give the Rollins defense its chief troubles tomorrow afternoon. Harper at fullback, and Hutchinson at end are both fast men and hard tacklers, while Stone and Fletcher are also players of the fighting brand; but if the Green and White Eleven puts up the aggressive battle that it is capable of, there is little danger of the Stetson boys coming home with the wrong end of the score.

The Stetson line-up for tomorrow is uncertain. Some of the second team have been fighting hard for positions, and it is probable that some of them, for at least part of the game, will hold positions on the Varsity. Various shifts in the line-up which have been tentatively tried during practise by Coach Hollander may go into effect in tomorrow's clash. Dud Rutherford has been tried at center, while Rasco has taken a guard. The entire line is being hotly contested, especially where Allen, Browning, Fenno, and Sherman are fighting it out on the ends. Coach Hollander, of course, refuses to state in detail who will play, but the line-up will probably start something like this:

Stetson	Rollins
Allen.....	L.E. Hutchinson
Chalker.....	L.T. Avants
Smith.....	L.G. West
Rasco.....	C. Clark

STETSON LITERARY SOCIETY

At the regular meeting of the Stetson Literary Society, which was held last Friday night in Science Hall, the following program was given:

Stetson Star—Ralph Thompson.
Current Events—Francis Griggs.
Debate, Resolved that the United States is right in her attitude in the Mexican situation.

Affirmative—Dewey Johnson, Gordon Northrop.

Negative—Clyatt Lewis.

The judges, Amelia Boor, Clara Nutt and Dorothy Martin, decided unanimously in favor of the negative.

The sins of omission and commission of Stetson Literary Society—Lucy Gilbert.

Extempore—Dorothy Martin.

Parliamentary Practice—Leonard Beers.

The critic's report by Dr. Baldwin was given and the meeting adjourned.

CHAUDOIN TEA.

On Friday afternoon from 4 to 6 an informal tea was given in the Chaudoin parlors. Miss Martien, Miss Berger, Mrs. Dohm, Miss Holden, and Miss Bangs were the hostesses and entertained beautifully the faculty members and wives. The parlors were decorated with ferns and lighted by a great number of candles that spread a great soft glow over the entire room. Mrs. Peek presided at the toaster while Misses Gates and Ford poured tea. Misses Chase and Selter and Professors Mickle, Rockwood and Brass served. Helen Ake and Mary Reed played the victrola while the guests and hostesses supped and chatted together.

The pleasant meeting came to a close at six o'clock.

PI BETA PHI.

Entertain Pledges.

The ever popular bacon bat was the form of the invitation extended by the Piffies of the Pi Beta Phi, to the pledges of the Delta Delta Delta, on last Saturday. The gay party assembled at Chaudoin, soon after six, bountifully supplied with eats, and a Ford full of bathing suits. If any one doubts the good time, ask to see the pictures.

PI PHI FRIENDS ENTERTAINED

On Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 14, the Pi Beta Phi Fraternity entertained in the Fraternity room (which had been beautifully decorated for the occasion by the "Piffies") with an informal tea, honoring the Patronesses, Mothers, and Sisters. Dainty refreshments were served, with Mrs. Hulley presiding at the tea table. During the hours from four to five thirty, many called and enjoyed the hospitality of the Pi Beta Phi Fraternity.

Misses Bee Christiansen and Fern Fillingham spent the week end in Umatilla. Most of the time was spent in motoring to the neighboring towns.

FRESHMAN PARTY

Spirit of "20" Shown.

In order that Chaudoin's time-honored social hour might not be disturbed, the date of the Freshman party was changed from Saturday night, November 11th, to Friday night, November 10th. Did that affect the Freshmen's pleasure? Not in the least; ask anyone who was there.

The parlors were beautifully decorated with crimson and gray, the newly chosen colors of the class. In several places the class numerals "1920," made of red crepe paper, were displayed against gray backgrounds of Florida moss. Upon entering the door, each guest was promptly tagged with a rosette of crimson and gray yarn; and on his back was pinned a slip of paper bearing the name of some mysterious animal whose identity the wearer had to ascertain by questioning those around him. The result was a menagerie of startling variety. Lions, elephants, cats, whales, ants, otters, cows, hogs, camels, etc., filled the room in utmost confusion, each one trying to find out what kind of a creature he really was.

Some of the crowd began to think that refreshments were coming early when three sheets were spread down in different corners of the room, and a box of Cornflakes, with saucers and spoons, was brought forth. The mystery was solved, however, when Earl Roebuck and Miss Isabelle Bourley were blindfolded, seated opposite each other on one of the sheets, and each given a dish of the dry breakfast food. Then the fun began in watching them try to feed each other. Mr. R. K. Smith and Miss Freeman were the next victims to be put on the rack, and were in turn followed by Mr. Albritton with Miss Halderman.

Several parlor games, such as "They put the pig in the parlor," "The farmer takes a wife," etc., were enjoyed during the early part of the evening. A game of "Cross Questions and Crooked Answers" was started in the back parlor, but was soon broken up by the serving of refreshments, which consisted of salad, saltines, and sandwiches. A large punch bowl, many times refilled, was the principal center of attraction for a while; then the crowd gathered around the piano to practise class songs and yells, which had been prepared by a specially appointed committee. From the results, President Roebuck certainly showed a great deal of wisdom in his selection of this committee. Much class spirit was manifested throughout; in fact, it makes us tremble for the Sophomores when things are really up and doing.

Suddenly the whole company stampeded to the opposite end of the room. It was nearly 9:30, the time for the bell to ring, but a few Sophomore girls, in the vain hope of putting one over on the Freshies, had got hold of the bell to ring it before the hour. The Freshman girls showed their mettle, however, and after a short tussle, in which one of the Soph

EUSOPHIAN LITERARY SOCIETY.

The Eusophian Literary Society held its weekly meeting in the Carnegie Library, Nov. 10. The attendance was unusually large and the meeting was a very interesting one, at which time the following program was rendered:

1. A Great American Writer—May Friedlander.
2. The Best American Prose Writer—Alice Sarven.
3. Reading From a Living American Poet—Jessie Brooks.
4. Inventions During the Past Fifty Years—Sarah Chase.
5. Extempore—Hylda Lynn.
6. Parliamentary Practice—June Elliott.
7. Straw Vote for Wilson and Hughes.
8. Census Report—Helen Ake.
9. Junior Critic's Report.

The new girls are showing us what they are capable of doing by the way they participate in the meetings. This is very encouraging for our Society and their efforts are greatly appreciated. Keep it up, girls, during the school year.

The Parliamentary Practice was conducted very successfully by one of our capable members, June Elliott, and it was very helpful to everyone present.

The straw voting created an interest among the girls. The majority of the girls voting for Wilson, which was a great disappointment to the "Hughes Girls."

New members are being constantly added to the roll, which fact shows that our meetings are attractive to the College girls.

PHI ALPHA DELTA LAW FRAT

Initiate New Member.

The Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity of John B. Stetson University initiated Mr. Rubert Longstreet Tuesday night, November 7.

On Tuesday night, November 14, the Brewer Chapter pledged Gardiner Sherman, Wayne Gilman, Bernard Berk and Wilhelm Pencke.

The law fraternity is of the highest standards and is doing much to keep up scholarship in the law department. Its conservative policy and high standards are a recognized feature of all professional fraternities.

PHI PSI DANCE

Held at DeLeon Springs.

Another successful dancing party was instituted by the boys of the Phi Beta Psi Fraternity last Saturday evening. Twelve couples drove out in motor cars to DeLeon Springs, where a bully picnic supper, including roast dogs, pickles, and ice cream, was heartily enjoyed. Some of the party went swimming and these made especially devastating inroads into the grub pile.

After supper everyone danced in the pavilion. The music was furnished by one of the Phi Beta Psi Victrolas, which was taken out from the Fraternity house

KENT LAW CLUB

Preparing for Fight for Cup.

The Kent Law Club was called to order by the president. Owing to the absence of the Secretary, Mr. McCutcheon, the chair appointed Mr. Melton secretary pro tem. The roll call showed the largest attendance of the term. After the old and new business had been arranged the question of the debate between the Kent and Varsity Clubs came up and was discussed. After much debating a motion was carried to the effect that a committee of three be appointed by the president to confer with the Varsity Club to arrange terms and schedule for the debate. The motion was carried out by the president appointing Messrs. Peterson, Harris and Walsden, as the committee of the Kent Club.

Mr. Julian Hazard, who represented the Kent Club to arrange for a Wilson-Hughes debate with the Varsity reported that owing to the efforts to arrange for the cup debate, the matter had to be dropped.

The following program was rendered:

Debate, Resolved that the United States should have a strong merchant marine.

Affirmative—Mr. Peterson and Mr. Webster.

Negative—Mr. Caro and Mr. Walsden.

Both sides put up spirited arguments but the judges, Messrs. Pattishall, Bates and Pencke, rendered a verdict in favor of the negative.

The debate was followed by a talk by Mr. Bates, who gave some helpful suggestions to the club. Mr. Pattishall held the chair for a turbulent five minutes practice in parliamentary practice. The meeting then adjourned.

VARSITY CLUB.

The Varsity Club held its regular meeting Friday evening. No program was given at this meeting but the entire time was taken up in transacting business. It was decided by the club that an open meeting be held the last of this term and a committee was appointed to meet with Dean Smith and arrange for a program for this event.

A committee, consisting of Zeigler, Day, and Amidon, was appointed by the chair. This committee was instructed to confer with the Kent Club and arrange for the subject and date of the debate to be held for the cup, which has been given for this purpose.

ANOTHER HARD BATTLE

Scrubs 18, Varsity 12.

The Scrubs again romped on the near Varsity when the evenly divided squad clashed with itself last Tuesday. The fact that Dutch Hollander, Gee, Allen, and Sherman were numbered among the so-called "Scrubs" explains their unusual strength. The striking features of the play were a long

We Apologize, Rollins.

In the last week's issue of The Collegiate, in referring to the Rollins Varsity Football Team, by an oversight on the part of the editor, the team was spoken of as the Academy team. It is sincerely regretted that this mistake occurred and we desire to apologize for such mistake and assure you, Rollins, that it will not occur again.

The freindship that Rollins and Stetson have always maintained should continue so in the future and we sincerely desire to state that no offense was intended, and that we hope the matter will be forgotten.

SOUR GRAPES FROM FLORIDA

"Stetson is to have a football team this year. At a meeting of the students the first of the year an athletic Association was formed and $300 subscribed. They will not likely take on any heavy games this season but they should make a fair showing against the prep. schools and other colleges of the State. They cannot hope to do much better because a good football team is the result of years of development. If Stetson plays football on the square we predict that she will have a team that is well supported and one that will make good against the stronger teams of the South but it has been proved that neither the students nor the people of DeLand will support a team of "ringers." The 'Gators congratulate Stetson on again taking up this important sport and assure them as soon as they have shown themselves worthy of our steel and become eligible to play us under S. I. A. A. rules that we will forget old-time grudges and be glad to reopen athletic relations."

The above editorial is from the October 31st issue of the Florida Alligator.

We have to thank Florida for the space given us in the editorial column of its paper but not for what it contains.

What victories or what laurels Florida's eleven has won this year to hang in triumph in her halls we do not know and have been wondering ever since, but when such insinuations as "they (Stetson) should make a fair showing against the prep. schools," is written we have but to challenge. What has Florida beaten that she may pat herself upon the back in self conceit? What is this year's record of her eleven? We all know, we need not trace it's history or list the defeats. Before Florida places other schools and colleges as high as herself in the rank of prep. schools, we ask to be shown since when has Florida joined the REALLY high and well deserved ranks of Harvard and Yale in the football world. We did not know before that Florida could tell us what class our team should play in. "If Stetson plays football ON THE SQUARE" is rather a mean sounding phrase. Allegations laid must be proved. Those who live in glass houses never should throw stones. Alibis are weak now days when a team doesn't accept a challenge.

Such self given flattery as this: "As soon as they (Stetson) have shown themselves worthy of OUR STEEL and become eligible to play us under S. I. A. A. rules we will forget oldtime grudges and be glad to reopen athletic relations," sounds much like one who has sudden wealth thrust upon himself trying hard to forget his neighbor Jones and pretend sounded the tocsin with a great deal of vim, but with little effect, the bone of contention was surrendered to the maid, who rang it in earnest, whereupon, after giving fifteen rals for Miss Martien, the crowd quickly, though reluctantly, dispersed.

Julia Church spent the week end with Sarah Smith.

he always associated with the "high class." If Florida desired to make advances toward doing away with old grudges this is an example of how far they care to go to promote a better feeling.

Stetson has an eleven of which she can be just as proud as Florida can be of her eleven and before placing other college teams in prep. school class let Florida show she can do it with her "mighty" (?) eleven. It sounds well to the men at home to explain whys and wherefores of not playing Stetson but if Florida remembers correctly, she had a chance to play that so-called prep. school eleven but like old Beau Brummel, she makes a polite bow to the grandstand and walks away.

We realize that Florida has no fear of Stetson's eleven ? ? ? ? ? We also realize that the school that dont care to "mix up" with that "little old prep. school eleven" should be careful in their allegations that Stetson's team is one of "ringers."

Stetson wants clean athletics as well as Florida. We are not going to let Florida talk to us like a father to his son. If Florida had produced any greater than Stetson has from her halls or Stetson has placed on her elevens, well she might flatter herself. Some day wilt thou exclaim, Florida, "Oh egotism, oh egotism, thou didst ruin me!"

Enough of this, Florida. The student body of Florida want to be friends with Stetson. Stetson wants to be friends with them. The real school sentiment is not as printed in Florida's paper. But for heaven's sake throw away that halo from your head and remember that facts are facts and that Stetson's "little old prep. school eleven" are right here at any time. FLORIDA, you can find them ready. The address is, the Athletic field, back of the Cummings Gym, DeLand, Florida.

Hewitt Walker is in Tampa in the chicken farming industry. He reports that eggs are worth fifty cents a dozen, but the supply is so limited that he may have to raise the price again.

forward pass, received by Dutch Hollander, and a hundred yard run by Gee following a touch back.

The squad is working in great form, and is expected to overwhelm the Rollins boys with another lop-sided score. Some of the second team men especially are going great guns, and some of the Varsity will have to fight if they are going to hold their positions. There may be some startling changes in the line-up when the team trots out on the Rollins field tomorrow.

GIRLS BASKET BALL

Schedule Partly Arranged.

Word has been received from the Washington Seminary of Atlanta, Georgia, that their team will be glad to give the Stetson girls a game in Atlanta about the middle of January. This team plays nothing but boys rules and consequently the Stetson team is hard at work learning the new style of play.

It is hoped that the Stetson team will be able to get a game with Atlanta to be played on Stetson's own floor. The Washington Seminary has an exceptionally strong team this year, but the Stetsonites are out after the strong teams and will do their best to bring home the large end of the score.

Miss Katherine Haynes will be unable to play with the team this year owing to the fact that she graduates at the end of this term and will not be in school during the Winter term. Miss Haynes is an "S" girl of several years standing and the team regrets her loss.

Miss Virginia Roop has reported for practice during the past week emy team will be formed to take care of these teams. Last week the Academy girls played the college girls in an interesting game of about ten minutes duration, and the final score was two and two. This goes to show that Stetson Academy will have a team that will be able to hold its own with their High school contenders.

Rollins College and Southern College have been written to for open dates, but up to the present we have had no answer to our letters. We are in high hopes of securing games with these two colleges.

The beginning of this week the usual training stunts were gone through with. Curtis Gardiner, captain of the 1917 boys team, is assisting with the coaching and a good workout and plenty of pep at the practices goes but to prove that the young ladies appreciate the fact that they need every help in the boys rules as well as the girls rules.

By the way, Girls, have you paid your athletic dues to Mildred Watts? Try to pay up as soon as possible. Help the young ladies for they will appreciate it every bit.

GREEN ROOM CLUB.

The Green Room Club announces the date of November 24th for their initial entertainment of the year. The cast has been hard at work on three one act comedies, which they will present on this date, and a most enjoyable evening is forthcoming to the student body and the townspeople. Tickets are already on sale by several members of the Green Room Club, and a number of the students, and at Fowler's.

The price of admission to this entertainment is fifty cents to all, and it is to be hoped that the students and townspeople will turn out in a body to see these plays. The Green Room Club has made a name for itself, and will more than uphold the work of the past.

Don't Forget the Date—Nov. 24th.

UNIVERSITY AUDITORIUM

Jessie Schwingle and Virginia Roop spent the week end with the Elliott girls. 'Mac' says that he had a nice week end at Elliott's, too.

Edith Foley is recovering from a slight operation on her nose.

Armin Smith is in Tampa looking for a desirable location in the "Movie" business.

After the Rollins game stiff work will be ahead of the team for the Thanksgiving Day game with Southern.

Phi Kappa Delta announces the pledging of Roy Amidon of Lakeland, Fla.

and is doing her best to make the team.

Several teams will be chosen at once and thus the competition will be higher and play will be more earnest. The teams will give exhibition games in the near future in the boys' gymnasium. A small admission fee will be charged and the funds will be used for the purpose of securing new suits for the girls.

Palatka High School has promised to play the Stetson girls any time after the first of December and the manager is at present trying to tie up this game for the seventh or eighth of that

"Cutie" Skinner sends word from Tampa that he and — will be on hand at the Southern-Stetson game there Thanksgiving Day.

Prof. Rockwood states that as soon as the weather will permit, he will again take up his tennis. He says that he is determined that Garland Hale shall not have the championship this year.

month. This will probably be the first game of the season and as Palatka has always put out a strong aggregation the game will be interesting from the beginning to the end. This game is to be played under the "girl's rules."

Several of the High School teams of the State have asked for games with the Academy team at Stetson, and consequently an Acad-

"Athletics" was the subject of another of Dr. Hulley's practical talks last Sunday. During the discussion he took first, the religious viewpoint of Paul, then the viewpoint of the average man interested in athletics.

A number of objections to athletics were raised and considered by Dr. Hulley. Among these were the objections that athletics were a waste of time; that they developed dishonesty among the participants; that some athletics, notably football, were brutal and dangerous; that they placed undue emphasis on non-essentials; that they disorganized the college work; that they promoted gambling among the students. Each of these objections, after having been examined from all sides, was proved to be unjustified, and all were set aside.

Dr. Hulley showed, on the other hand, that athletics are of benefit in several ways. They are good physically, especially in developing the lungs and destroying faults such as the cigaret habit. They are good morally, because they teach self-restraint, control of temper, hardiness, courage, co-operation, and will. They are good mentally, because they compel alertness, quick thinking, and steady judgment.

The discussion was concluded by a few words on applying the principals of athletics in daily life. The entire talk was so designed as to encourage the student to play fair and hit the line hard, whether in football or in the game of life.

The subject of the sermon for next Sunday's Vespers will be "The Student and Religion." As this is a subject of the utmost interest to the students and friends of the University, the attendance should be even better than usual.

Y. M. C. A.*Prohibition Meeting.

An interesting meeting was held at the Y. M. C. A. rooms in the form of an appeal for prohibition.
The meeting opened with songs and a reading from the Scriptures.
Following prayer, Dr. Farriss, the speaker of the evening, gave a very fine talk on "Prohibition." He described very clearly the importance of prohibition in national life and the progress the movement has made. The evils that exist where prohibition is not in force was forcefully presented.

After Dr. Farriss' speech the following officers of the Prohibition Association were elected:
President—Rudolph Peterson.
Vice President—John Zeigler.
Secy-Treas.—Earol Roebuck.
The meeting was then adjourned.

CHAUDOIN.

Saturday morning a gay little party set out from Chaudoin. The party was composed of Elizabeth Gregory, Helen Ake, Miss Spof-ford, Ethel Sholtz, and Mary Reed. In Elizabeth's Ford they went to Sanford, where they had dinner. From Sanford they went to Orlando, stopping at Winter Park to ride around the Rollins
Campus and see the buildings.
After a little shopping in Orlando, they came back, getting to Chaudoin shortly after eight.

Ruth Stewart has been called home permanently because of her mother's illness.
